a) In cazul producerii unui eveniment de munca, ambele parti trebuie sa ia urmatoarele masuri:
- sa acorde primul ajutor victimelor;
- sa mentina starea de fapt care a condus la producerea evenimentului, cu exceptia cazurilor in care aceasta ar conduce la agravarea starii personalului sau la producerea unor evenimente similare; pentru orice modificare a starii de fapt rezultata din producerea evenimentului, Executantul va consemna pe propria raspundere, intr-un proces-verbal, toate modificarile efectuate dupa producerea evenimentului; Executantul va lua masuri pentru a se face schite si fotografii ale locului unde s-a produs, se vor identifica si se vor ridica orice obiecte care contin sau poarta o urma a evenimentului. Obiectele vor fi predate organelor care efectuează cercetarea si vor constitui probe în cercetarea evenimentului;
- sa ia masuri pentru conservarea probelor privind starea de fapt a producerii evenimentului, in vederea stabilirii cu certitudine a cauzelor si responsabililor de producerea acestuia;
- sa avizeze organele de cercetare legale, cand accidentul are ca urmare invaliditate evidenta sau deces.
- sa se informeze in scris reciproc, precum si Inspectoratul Teritorial de Munca despre evenimentul produs cu toate datele necesare conform prevederilor legale.

b) in cazul producerii unui eveniment in care sunt implicati lucratorii Executantului, acesta event of an incident/accident caused by its fault, the Contractor shall bear the costs for remedying the damage, eliminating its consequences, and restoring the conditions existing prior to the occurrence of the damage.

III. Communication, Investigation and Recording of Work-Related Events

a) In the event of a work-related incident, both parties shall take the following measures:
- provide first aid to the victims;
- preserve the factual situation that led to the occurrence of the event, except in cases where this would lead to the aggravation of the personnel's condition or the occurrence of similar events; for any modification of the factual situation resulting from the event, the Contractor shall record, under its own responsibility, in a written report, all changes made after the occurrence of the event; the Contractor shall take measures to ensure that sketches and photographs of the place where the event occurred are made, and any objects containing or bearing traces of the event shall be identified and collected. These objects shall be handed over to the authorities conducting the investigation and shall constitute evidence in the investigation of the event;
- take measures to preserve evidence regarding the factual circumstances of the event, in order to establish with certainty its causes and those responsible;
- notify the competent investigation authorities when the accident results in obvious invalidity or death;
- mutually inform each other in writing, as well as the Territorial Labour Inspectorate, about the occurred event, providing all necessary data in accordance with legal provisions.

b) in the event of an occurrence involving the Contractor's employees, the Contractor shall inform
