Subject: Completion of Request for Quotation (RFQ) — Feasibility Study Phase

Dear Mr. Soare,

We are writing to formally inform you that the Request for Quotation (RFQ) process for the Feasibility Study phase of the Certej Mining Project has been completed. All quotations received, including yours, have been carefully reviewed and evaluated by our procurement and technical teams.

We would like to sincerely thank you for the time, effort, and professionalism your team invested in preparing your submission. We fully recognize the significant work required to develop a thorough and accurate quotation of this nature, and we value the quality and responsiveness of your participation throughout the process.

As the project advances into its execution phase, the Client anticipates launching the Request for Proposal (RFP) process in Q3-2027 or thereafter. We are pleased to confirm that we intend to invite your company to participate in this upcoming RFP process, and we look forward to the opportunity to continue working together.

Please do not hesitate to contact us should you have any questions in the meantime. We thank you once again for your interest in the Certej Mining Project and look forward to future collaboration.

Sincerely,

Razvan Vasii
