- Damages resulting from unauthorized chemicals or an unsuitable operating environment.

6. Order Modification and Cancellation

Order modifications, cancellations, or withdrawals are only possible with the prior written approval of the Seller, provided that the order has not yet been prepared, manufactured, or shipped.

If cancellation or modification occurs after order processing has started, the Seller is entitled to charge the Buyer for incurred costs and 10% of the order value as a penalty, under the following conditions:

- Standard stock items (no assembly required): If the order has not been processed, cancellation is free of charge. If the item is already prepared, a handling fee may be charged.
- Custom-made or manufactured products: Cancellation is not possible, and the Buyer must pay the full order value, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

If the Buyer fails to collect the ordered product or cancels the order after processing, the penalty fee is 100% of the order value, and the Seller has the right to issue the full invoice, regardless of delivery status.
